

Revisit of the 6.10.2010 Smokewatch

Sun Nov 14, 2010 10:09 pm

It is about time this Smokewatch was revisited as the East coast burning has gone on and on continuously since the 6th of October. It is now the 15th of November

The burns down the west coast have been going for sometime as well.

Planned burns are certainly not just one day wonders as we are told
